MAIN EVENTS

8 GOING UNDER COVERS

Widely accepted among sports turf managers and golf course superintendents, field covers are vital additions to turf care arsenals.
Here's a look at several major cover benefits and tips for choosing the right one for the job.

14 EROSION CONTROL: TOOLS OF THE TRADE

Keeping sediment in its place during sports field and golf course construction is more than environmentally responsible—in many places across the nation, it's the law. Although there is no single soil stabilization recipe, getting to know the basic tools and their applications is essential for creating site-specific erosion control plans.

18 LIMITED WATER SEED PRIMING

Various methods of seed priming can slash germination time in half. Of these techniques, says Dr. Doug Brede, "limited water priming" is the easiest to perform. An overview.

24 STMA PROFILE: KEN MROCK—SETTING TABLES FOR BEARS

They're not problems, they're challenges, not headaches but opportunities—the can-do attitude of Ken Mrock, chief groundskeeper for the Chicago Bears, has helped propel the team to the playoffs for six of the last seven seasons.
