8 Mike Schiller — sportsTURF’s Manager of the Year
Ask anyone about Mike Schiller, and before you get words, you get a smile. He is a genuinely nice guy, a standout, standup man of commitment. Mike not only lives up to his principles, he sweeps others along with him on the straight and narrow path of dedication. This magazine is honored to name him Manager of the Year for 1998.

12 Making the Most of Trade Shows and Seminars
Trade shows can be a welcome break from the daily grind — a chance to step away from the demands of the office, get new ideas, and think about the big picture. Sport turf contractor Jim Puhalla relies on them to stay current, and shares ways he’s found to make attending trade shows and seminars an invigorating, useful enterprise.

16 Taking a Closer Look at Rootzones
Using the latest imaging technology, sports turf agronomist Michael DePew has been taking microscopic photographs of rootzones and soil profiles to see what makes them tick. He has reason to believe this will result in better field constructions for turf managers.

32 Milwaukee Brewers’ Rainy Day Miracle
When the ordinary suddenly becomes extraordinary, well-defined procedures, teamwork, innovative planning and persistence can pull off victory. Imagine yourself in the trenches with the Milwaukee Brewers’ grounds crew and slosh in their shoes through a devastating rain last summer.
