

Pro football fan alert

You've seen it on TV—the Pro Football Hall of Fame Enshrinement Celebration. You've watched the Hall of Fame Game, ABC's Monday Night Football "official" kickoff to the new season. This year, you and one of your friends could be at the game, live and in person!

Here is the impressive Class of 2002 you'll see inducted:

- Coach George Allen, who racked up regular season stats of 49-17-4 with the Los Angeles Rams and 67-30-1 with the Washington Redskins in his 12 years of NFL coaching.
- Tight end Dave Casper, dubbed "The Ghost," who was not only an outstanding receiver, but also a great blocker. The phrase "Ghost to the Post" was coined to note his 42-yard reception in the Raiders 1977 double-overtime win in the AFC playoff game with the Baltimore Colts.
- Defensive end Dan Hampton, a first-round pick of the Chicago Bears in 1979, who earned the nickname "Danimal" for his aggressive style of play.
- Quarterback Jim Kelly, who led the Buffalo Bills to four consecutive Super Bowl appearances with his mastery of the infamous "no-huddle" offense.
- Wide receiver John Stallworth, who racked up 537 passes for 8,723 yards and 63 touchdowns to help carry the Pittsburgh Steelers to four Super Bowl victories.

Besides that, you and one of your friends could rub shoulders with these inductees at the Hall of Fame Tailgate Party. And you both could play in a Golf Scramble with some of the NFL's legends or test your skills in the NFL Experience.

This NFL Hall of Fame Game and golf scramble package is included in the drawing offer the SAFE Foundation is running as a fundraiser for SAFE (Safer Athletic Field Environments).

The package for two (one winner, and his or her guest) consists of the following:
