

SAFE golf tournament at The Quarry

If you've ever spent any time with Monty Montague of Jacobsen, you know he doesn't do things halfway. He, and Jacobsen, are committed to the task at hand, and that's one of the reasons you should sign up for the 7th annual SAFE/Jacobsen Golf Tournament to be held Wednesday, January 17, at San Antonio's The Quarry Golf Club.

Your entry fee mostly benefits the Foundation for Safer Athletic Field Environments (SAFE), which has a mission to support sports field specific research, educational programs and environmental concerns to promote user safety.

The Quarry is known nationally for its unique setting and character, especially the back 9 that sits inside an old limestone quarry pit that's been around more than a century. The rocks surrounding the back 9 offer not only beautiful backgrounds, but also can come into play. Several years ago we played there for the SAFE outing and I recall seeing Abby McNeal and Vicki Wallace's group hitting their approach shots to one green from a rock ledge high above and behind one hole.

Last year in Orlando this tournament raised more than $17,500 for SAFE. While many players got a bit of a wind burn that day, they also enjoyed a fun day with good friends, plenty of food and refreshments, great prizes, and a top-notch golf course. Please join us this year in San Antonio for more of the same. - Eric Schroder ■
