It takes more than grass to make a home green

With more than 70 percent of states anticipating water shortages in the next five years, our once steady supply of water could be dwindling. To stay at the forefront of water-efficient technologies and practices, more than 400 certified irrigation professionals have joined WaterSense®, a partnership program sponsored by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency designed to protect the future of our nation's water supply. Visit www.epa.gov/watersense to find a WaterSense partner in your area.

Be part of the solution. Look for WaterSense irrigation partners.
