

SportsTurf Contents

JUNE 2011 | VOLUME 27 | NUMBER 6

Features

Field Science

- 8 Alternative sod installation timing to extend the growing season in the Northeast
- 12 Overseeding bermudagrass on the north edge of the transition zone
- 14 Water management in the rootzone
- 18 Hygroscopic & humectant technology use for water management challenges

Facilities & Operations

- 19 ASBA recognizes new Certified Field Builders
- 20 Is there any way to cool synthetic turf?
- 23 Illinois parks manager saving money & water with zoysiagrass
- 24 Using signage to educate the public about your environmental stewardship
- 28 New home for College World Series handles water problems

Irrigation & Drainage

- 32 Storm water management: one turf manager's plan

Tools & Equipment

- 35 Newest turf management products on the market

Field of the Year

- 37 2010 School/Parks Baseball Field of the Year
—Henrico County Parks & Rec, Glen Allen, VA

Departments

- 6 From the Sidelines
- 7 STMA President's Message
- 17 John Mascaro's Photo Quiz
- 41 STMA in Action
- 43 STMA Chapter Contacts
- 43 Ask a CSFM
- 44 Marketplace
- 45 Advertisers' Index
- 46 Q&A

On the cover: Vince Henderson, who might be the only turf manager in the country with a BA in economics, is responsible for maintaining 88 irrigated athletic fields, seven clay tennis courts, and 23 lawn and landscape areas for Henrico County in Virginia. The former golf course superintendent led his team to the STMA's 2010 School/Parks Baseball Field of the Year Award.

