

SportsTurf Contents

MARCH 2011 | VOLUME 27 | NUMBER 3

Features

Field Science

- 8 Pre-emergence weed control
- 10 New herbicides for 2011
- 12 Soil Test: A new high school field

Facilities & Operations

- 18 Turf managers have increased skin cancer risk
- 20 Hosting a successful STMA chapter event
- 22 Want to be an environmental steward? Here's how
- 24 Factors to consider before building a new sports field complex
- 28 Assignment & Daily Worksheet from the Seattle Mariners
- 34 Design and material selection for newest MLB facility, Salt River Fields at Talking Stick
- 40 Maintaining men's lacrosse fields

Tools & Equipment

- 42 New infield skin products help manage moisture
- 44 Latest products for turf management
- 48 Jacobsen celebrates 90th anniversary

Field of the Year

- 50 2010 Professional Baseball Field of the Year
—Arvest Ballpark, Springdale, AR

Departments

- 6 From the Sidelines
- 7 STMA President's Message
- 17 John Mascaro's Photo Quiz
- 48 Ask a CSFM
- 53 STMA Chapter Contacts
- 54 STMA in Action
- 56 Marketplace
- 57 Advertisers' Index
- 58 Q&A

On the cover: When Monty Sowell, manager of ballpark operations and head groundskeeper for the Northwest Arkansas Naturals, went on the disabled list after knee replacement surgery, his crew kept the award-winning field in great shape. Row one, L to R: Chris Evans and Shane Miller. Row two, L to R: Brandon Miller, Ruby Doo, Sowell, Alex Miler, Austin Miller. Row Three, L to R: John Francis, Kaleb Reynolds, Luke Laird. Not pictured: Kyle Martz. Photo by John Owen with NWA Photography.

